

Contents

i. Forward 1

Topic 1. Introduction: Management and organisational behaviour 3

- 1. The Exceptional Manager: What You Do, How You Do It 4
- 2. Effective Managers Understand Organizational Behavior 40

Topic 2. What is involved in understanding individual behaviour? 69

- 3. Individual Differences at Work 70

Topic 3. What are the historical foundations of management? 95

- 4. The Evolution of Management Thought 96

Topic 4. What does ethics have to do with it? Work environment and ethical responsibility 127

- 5. Management Theory: Essential Background for the Successful Manager 128

Topic 5. How managers make things happen? 157

- 6. Individual & Group Decision Making: How Managers Make Things Happen 158

Topic 6. How to manage individual differences and behaviour, increasing cooperation and reducing conflict? 197

- 7. Groups & Teams: Increasing Cooperation, Reducing Conflict 198
- 8. Effective Groups and Teams 228

Topic 7. Why sustainability is important to management? 261

- 9. The Manager as a Planner and Strategist 262
- 10. Strategic Management: Creating Competitive Advantages 298

Topic 8. What is involved in good global management? 335

- 11. Managing Diverse Employees in a Multicultural Environment 336
- 12. Managing in the Global Environment 368

Topic 9. What do I need to know about power, influence and leadership (from manager to leader)? 399

- 13. Organizational Culture, Structure, & Design: Building Blocks of the Organization 400

Topic 10. Is getting the right people important for managerial success? Human Resource Management 437

14. Human Resource Management: Getting the Right People for Managerial Success 438

Topic 11. Organisational change and innovation: Lifelong challenges for the exceptional manager 479

15. Organizational Change & Innovation: Lifelong Challenges for the Exceptional Manager 480

A. End of book 512